

Ani Mikitarian

Ani's unique ability is her creative mindset and positive attitude.

As a communications specialist, Ani's role revolves around creating a first-rate client experience. From planning memorable events and designing unique marketing collateral, to implementing corporate communications, social media, and web design strategies, Ani works to provide clients with a level of service that goes beyond the average financial services firm.

Before joining the Financial Foundations team in March 2016, Ani held marketing internships at the Hanover Insurance Group and Tyco Security Products in Worcester and Westford, Massachusetts, respectively. These positions gave her valuable insight into successful marketing practices, which she has brought with her to this role. Ani graduated cum laude from Bryant University in Smithfield, Rhode Island, with a BS in marketing and a minor in Spanish.

Ani was born and raised in central Massachusetts and resides in Boylston. In her free time, she enjoys traveling, cooking, and photography.
