Bryan Amandolare, CFP®, CRPC®

As Vice President, Wealth Advisor Bryan is committed to performing diligent research, immersing himself in the details, and creating long term relationships based on transparency and trust. Bryan joined Financial Foundations as a registered representative of Commonwealth Financial Network® in May 2004. Bryan's and his team's integrated approach to wealth management offers a comprehensive array of financial services. When needed, Bryan works in tandem with your attorneys, accountants, and any of your other advisors to ensure that the suggestions you are given align with all of your goals.

Bryan earned a BA from Quinnipiac University in 1999 where he received an athletic scholarship to play Division I Men's Lacrosse. Upon receiving his degree, Bryan joined the financial services industry and has embraced his profession. After years of trading and a passion for the markets, Bryan developed a strong desire to shift from working with advisors to becoming one. His prior experience has been paramount to his success in developing and implementing actively managed solutions to complement the values and milestones of each client.

In accordance with FINRA regulations, Bryan has earned his Series 7, 63, and 65 registrations, in addition to his producer life insurance license. Bryan has demonstrated his dedication to the industry by obtaining the CFP® certification, making him a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional. In addition, he has also attained the Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor℠ (CRPC®) professional designation through the College for Financial Planning.

Bryan has the support of his beautiful wife, Kristine, whom he met while they were both enrolled at Quinnipiac. They have two children, Anthony Joseph (AJ), born in 2006, and Alexa Leigh, born in 2008. In his free time, Bryan enjoys working out, coaching lacrosse and basketball and being a Dad.

Recent Honors

Bryan was named a Five Star wealth manager in 2014 and 2015 and also qualified for Commonwealth's President's Club conference in 2015.
