

Christina Mitkonis, CFP®, MSFP

Christina's career as a financial advisor is based on a strong foundation of family and community values. Her passion helping others along with her determination, charismatic personality, and analytical nature empowers her to work with clients who are at a pivotal financial point in their lives. Whether on the brink of retirement, changing jobs, buying a home, or gaining an inheritance, Christina offers her clients tactical solutions and long term financial strategies that ultimately help them reach their individual goals.

Christina graduated cum laude from Bentley University, earning a BS in managerial economics, with a focus in international business and a second degree in liberal studies, concentrating in global perspectives. She double-minored in law and information design/corporate communication. In 2012, Christina completed her Masters of Science in financial planning at Bentley University's McCallum Graduate School of Business.

Christina is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional. In accordance with FINRA regulations, in addition to the CFP®, she has obtained her Series 7 and 66 securities registrations and producer life, accident, and health insurance licenses through Commonwealth Financial Network®.

Being raised by an entrepreneurial family, she learned that hard work is paramount to success at a young age. At 12, she began helping her parents with the family businesses and continues to be a key component to their overall success. Christina is actively involved in the Greek community and currently sits on the Association of Greek American Professional Women (AGAPW) and Hellenic American Women's Counsel (HAWC).

Outside the office, Christina enjoys traveling and exploring new places and returning to Greece to see family.
