

Emily Levine

Emily's passion for creating a positive experience for each client is infectious. She excels at building relationships and understands the unique needs associated with each client. Emily graduated from Florida State University with a BS, double majoring in Business Management and Human Resources.

In May 2016, Emily joined Financial Foundations as an associate advisor and registered representative of Commonwealth Financial Network®. Prior to joining Financial Foundations, Emily spent seven years at Eaton Vance where she worked on large client relationships including retirement plans and high net worth accounts. Earlier in her career, Emily held client service and marketing positions at State Street Global Advisors and BNY Mellon Wealth Management. In accordance with FINRA regulations, Emily has earned her Series 7 and 63 registrations.

Emily currently resides in Hopkinton with her husband, Evan, and her two children, Julia and Drew. Outside the office, Emily enjoys spending quality time with family and friends and traveling to warm destinations.