

Karyn Kingswood

Karyn has a dynamic and approachable personality, enabling her to interact with our clients in an empathetic and compassionate way, while making sure their concerns are addressed.

Karyn was educated and grew up in England, a graduate from Bristol Polytechnic with a BA (Honours) in Town and Country Planning. As a town planner, Karyn acquired a background in customer service and investment planning which she was able to maximize in the United States in financial services.

Before joining Financial Foundations in February 2016, Karyn worked at Boston Partners Financial Group in Andover, MA as an executive assistant for nearly 8 years. She supported financial advisors in all aspects of financial planning with an emphasis on client satisfaction.

Karyn has a son in England who is a policeman and twin girls living in the United States. In her spare time Karyn enjoys travelling, visiting family and friends in England, hiking and watching Liverpool Football Club.