

Nicholas S. Cosentino, CFP®

CEO & President

Nick is the CEO & President and founder of Financial Foundations, Inc., an independent investment and financial services firm. He has over 25 years of experience in the financial services industry, a 20 year participant of Strategic Coach Mentor program, a Toronto based Mentor program for successful independent Entrepreneurs, and serves as one of the Wealth Advisers for the firm. Nick has focused on providing sophisticated wealth planning and investment management strategies to affluent families, executives, and small business owners. His goal is to use his broad experience to help his clients maintain their lifestyles throughout their retirement years, and pass this success onto the next generation.

Nick has the Unique Ability of inspiring his team and recognizing accomplishments that need to be made on a corporate, personal, and client-related level. His ability to push the people in his circle to grow, learn, and prosper has made him a successful wealth adviser, and a motivating mentor.

Earning a BS degree in finance from Bentley College, Nick then went on to obtain his CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER (CFP) designation, from the College of Financial Planning in Denver, CO. Additionally, Nick maintains his FINRA Series 7, 24, 51, and 63 securities registrations, which are held through Commonwealth Financial Network®. He began his career in the financial services industry specializing in asset management, income tax and cash flow planning, estate planning, and insurance planning. He founded Financial Foundations in the summer of 2001. It is at Financial Foundations where Nick created the unique process that he named The Personal Foundation Builder®.

Nick is involved in various philanthropic work, has served on the Board of Delegates for Easter Seals, is a long time supporter of Children International, is an active member of City on a Hill Board of Trustees, and regularly supports organizations including Birthday Wishes and various local community events.

Nick enjoys spending time with his wife, Dorothy, and their three children, Alex, Faith and Delaney. The Cosentino family resides in Southborough, Massachusetts, just three miles from the office. They love to bbq and swim in their backyard escape, and travel to warm destinations. Outside of Nick's men's golf league, Nick enjoys cooking, grilling, architectural design and personal fitness.

Recent Honors

Commonwealth Financial Network, a leading investment brokerage firm for independent financial consultants nationwide. Celebrating his 25th year with Commonwealth, Nick has qualified for Commonwealth's prestigious Leaders Conference and Chairman's Retreat every consecutive year since it's inception. A Chairman's Level advisor carries a distinction attained by just 3 percent of advisors affiliated with Commonwealth Financial Network.

Nicholas Cosentino is proud to have been recognized as a Chairman's Level advisor for 2015—a distinction attained by just over 3 percent of advisors affiliated with Commonwealth Financial Network.

